a bold manifesto arguing that there is a clear precedent for paying reparations to atone for america s original sin of slavery offering a compelling legal strategy to achieve this goal from the acclaimed author of the whiteness of wealth the idea of reparations is not a new or original one it is one that is baked into american history when the district of columbia emancipation act of 1862 went into effect wealthy slaveowners like margaret barber were compensated for the loss of their enslaved workers barber received 9 000 an equivalent to 250 000 today when a group of italian immigrants were lynched in 1892 president harrison compensated italy a total of 25 000 for their deaths an equivalent to almost 766 000 today the indian claims commission an arm of the federal government paid indigenous americans 818 million for underhandedly stealing their land in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries an equivalent to almost 350 billion today dorothy a brown addresses the glaring question if reparations can be achieved for others why not for black americans if lynching can be remedied for italian immigrants and slaveholders compensated for losses associated with abolition and emancipation then the government's failure to provide such remedies to black communities harmed by similar violence loss and destruction is long overdue the fight for reparations is truly a fight for the soul of america to produce the country our founding fathers idealized but never achieved getting to reparations makes a logical and necessary case for reparations for black americans it lays out a path as to how we might achieve this built on the frameworks used throughout u s history by the government to pay restitution it is now time to do the same for america's black population
